

When you think of Pella,
you think tulips, windmills,
and wooden shoes.

When you think of Pella, you think...

Pella Historical Museums

Pella Historical Museums has been an important organization in the community since 1935, originally formed to organize and sponsor Pella's annual Tulip Time Festival - which we continue to do today. Since becoming a 501c3 non-profit in 1966, Pella Historical has developed into a 23-building Historical Village, the Vermeer Windmill, the Miniature Dutch Village, the Scholte House Museum, the Klokkenspel, and East Amsterdam School.

Member Benefits

What do we do?

Attract visitors to Pella - tens of thousands visit our museums each year!

Tell Pella's story through museum displays, speakers, classes, demonstrations, and more

Host field trips and group tours for students and lifelong learners

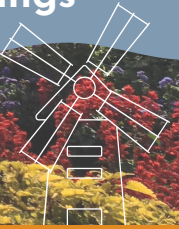

Preserve artifacts, photos, and documents for future generations to learn from

Organize and sponsor Tulip Time, which brings in over 3 million dollars to Pella and the surrounding area!

Keep Pella beautiful through sprawling gardens and historically preserved buildings
