

PRETTY AS A PICTURE

From maintaining and operating one of the country's largest working windmills, to planting nearly 90,000 tulip bulbs each year, to restoring and preserving historic buildings like the Scholte House, Pella Historical helps keep the community a beautiful place for locals and visitors alike.

CULTURAL DESTINATION

We are proud to be a part of keeping Pella's story alive for our town's residents - both young and old - and love sharing Pella's history and Dutch heritage with many visitors. In an average year, Pella Historical welcomes 30,000 visitors, with an additional 12,000 at Tulip Time alone.

COMMUNITY PARTNER

Throughout the year, Pella Historical works to promote the entire community. This is most on display at our annual Tulip Festival, which brings a $3.1 million boost to Pella and the surrounding thirty miles. Spring through winter, we love working together to make Pella a wonderful place to live and visit.
